

AZ STATE SOCIETY OF MEDICAL ASSISTANTS PRESENTS

Outbreak Investigations – A Partnership between Applied and Academic Public Health

Kristen Pogreba- Brown, PhD

Director of the Applied Public Health Research and Surveillance Laboratory at the University of Arizona, Ms. Pogreba-Brown is married, a mother of two, and enjoys tennis and cooking. She has implemented surveillance systems in the field for Super Bowl XLII (2008), President Obama Convocation (2009), Fiesta Bowl (2009, 2012, 2015, 2016)- just to name a few of her accomplishments. Meet her on the 17th!

Where:

Fred E. Acosta Job Corps
901 S. Campbell Tucson

When/time:

March 17, 2018, 10am-12 noon

Register for 2 ceu's by:

March 1, 2018

Mary Dockall 602 619 4227
mary.dockall@me.com

Learning Objectives

- Describe the role of public health in outbreak investigations
- Describe the public health surveillance systems used to identify outbreaks
- Describe the interactions between various entities for solving outbreaks